MY BABY I'LL GO TOO.

MAY IRWIN

CHORUS.

My Ba-by, I can't leave you, don't seem no use to try. So come on, choose you'll never leave me Baby 'till I die. The true love's all been tested that's in my heart for you. Go here go there go a-ny-where, my Ba-by I'll go too day

 bye
 you?
 "Dear John Brown it seems a sin to throw you down But my heart's been stole a way, 'Twas cap-tured by the fig-ure of a cop-per col-ored nig-ger That I met by chance one day At the very first meet-ing in my heart commenced a beat-ing. And it

CHORUS.

When a nig-ger keeps you guess-in', All he gives you is his bless-ing
 Dat's a pus-sie dat I can't get thro' my head: When he prom-ised to support you, Find your clothes and bed and board you. And you has to bus-tle for your self in-stead. So this morn-ing I said Them-as-kind-er think a-bout dat prom-ise
