There's a cer - tain cab - a - ret in town
Heard an old quar - tet last night 'bout two,

Vamp mp p

Where lov - ers all meet, and mu - sic is sweet;
"Sweet A - de - line" was cer - tain - ly fine;

p

— And ev - 'ry time their jazz band plays this lit - tle tune,
— And then they sang that, "Ain't Got No Ba - na - nas Blues,"

p

— You'll hear ev-'ry - one — all try-ing to hum — or whis - tle:
 — Then war-bled this tune — that ev-en the moon — seemed pleased with:

CHORUS p-f

Fun-ny lit - tle tune, — a rag-gy syn-co-pat-ed tune, — You'll hear it

p-f morn-ing, night or noon, — and I must say: — It kind-a puts you in a trance, —

— you want to get right up and dance, — To lose a step, there's not a chance, — each en-core, you'll want more. It's got all the op — 'ra sing-ers, Wish-ing they were rag - time fling-ers, So that they could sing — this mel-o - dy. — Be-lieve me, ev'-ry-where you go — they play it, when you want to know, — They say it's just a fun-ny lit - - - tle tune. tune. D.S.
