Voice

Lit-tle Sa-die is a la-dy, Yes, in-deed she is, Does'n't ev-er miss, a lit-tle hug or kiss. Talk-ing of her stead-y lov-er, all the live-long day, She com-plains a - bout her beau this way.

Chorus

Now when he takes me home at four — He al-ways stalls a-round the door, It's p-f aw - ful, it's aw - ful, I mean it's aw - ful - ly nice. — No mat-ter how much I re - sist — He nev-er leaves un - til I'm kissed, It's aw - ful, it's aw - ful, I mean it's aw - ful - ly nice.

Oh! boy—when he pets me, and prais - es my charms,

That's when— he up - sets me, I fall— in his arms — I'm not the girl I've tried to be — I don't know what he's done to me, It's aw - ful, it's aw - ful, I mean it's aw - ful - ly nice! Now when he nice!
