

1972
98

MACCK'S SWELL CAR WAS A

Maxwell

Words by Charlie Patrick
Music by
N. E. Schwarzwald

STRONG PUBLISHING COMPANY

2714 Hirsch Boulevard
CHICAGO

Mack's Swell Car Was A Maxwell

Words by
CHARLIE PATRICK

Music by
M. E. SCHWARZWALD

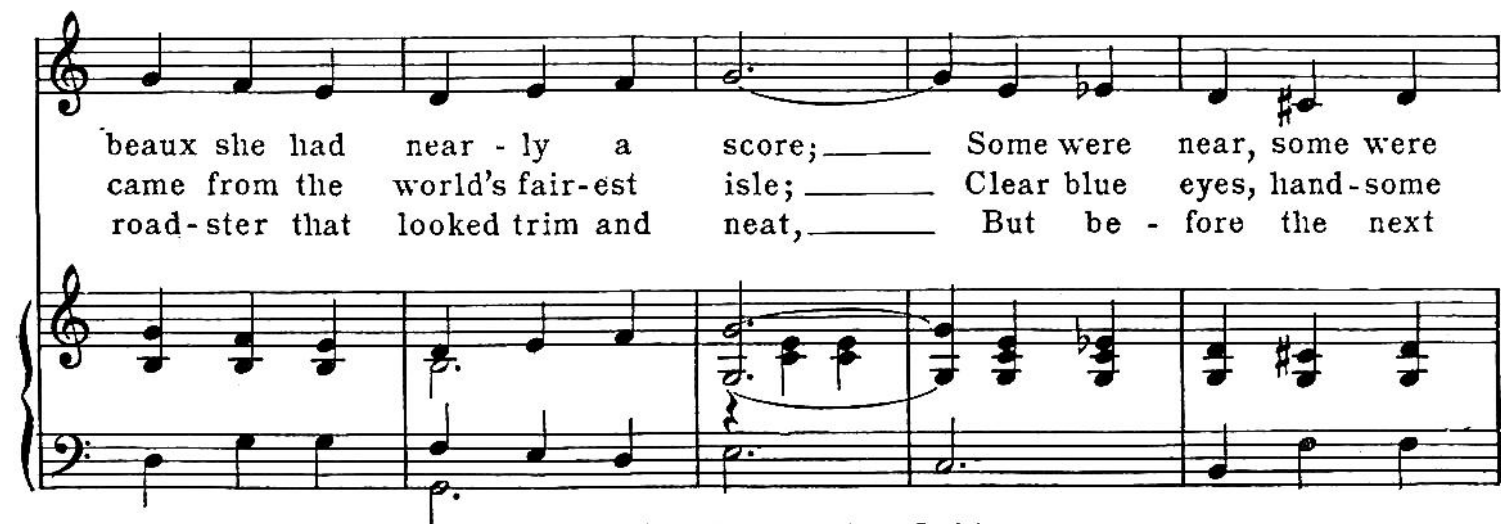

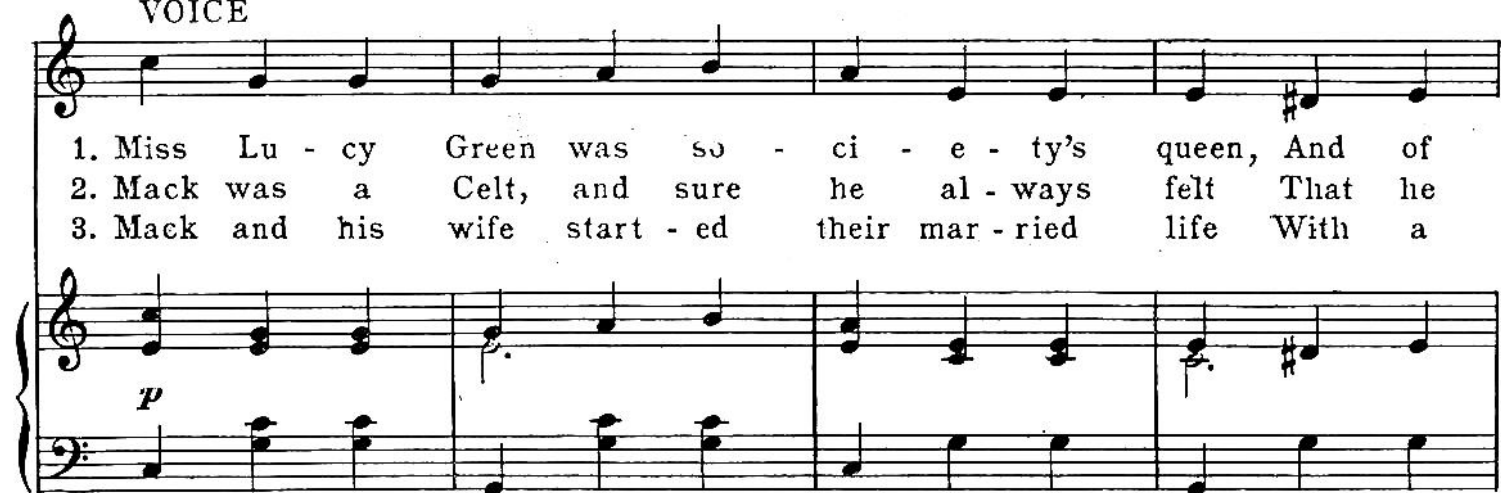

In waltz time

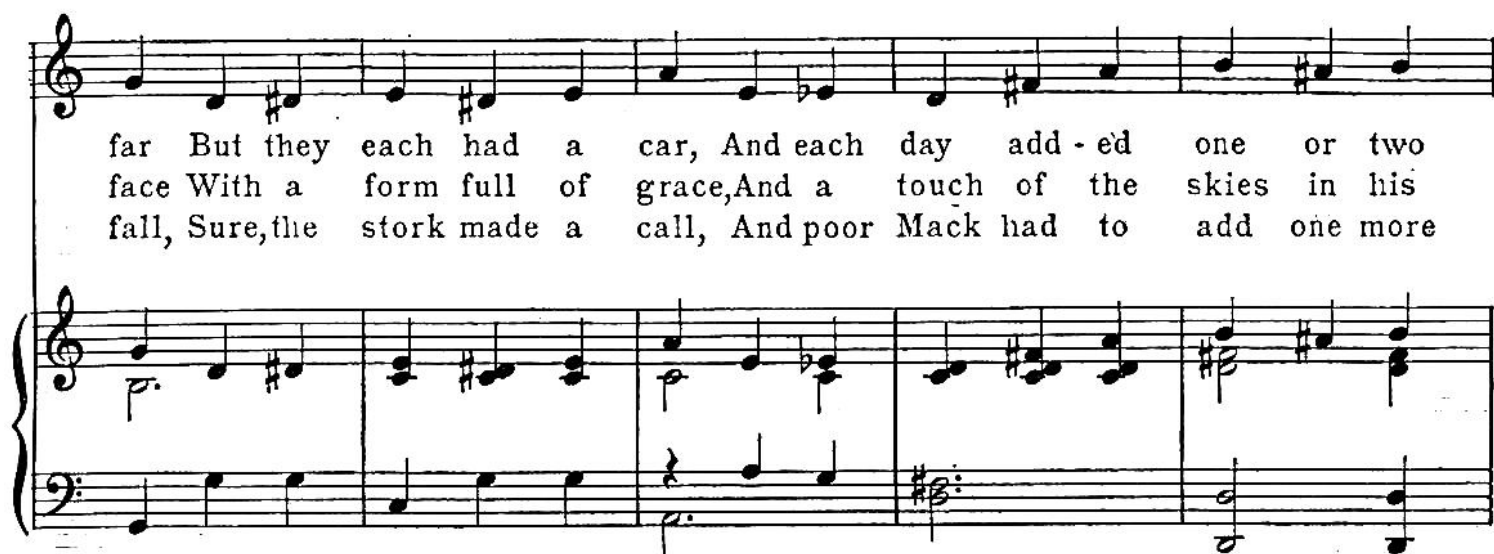

VAMP

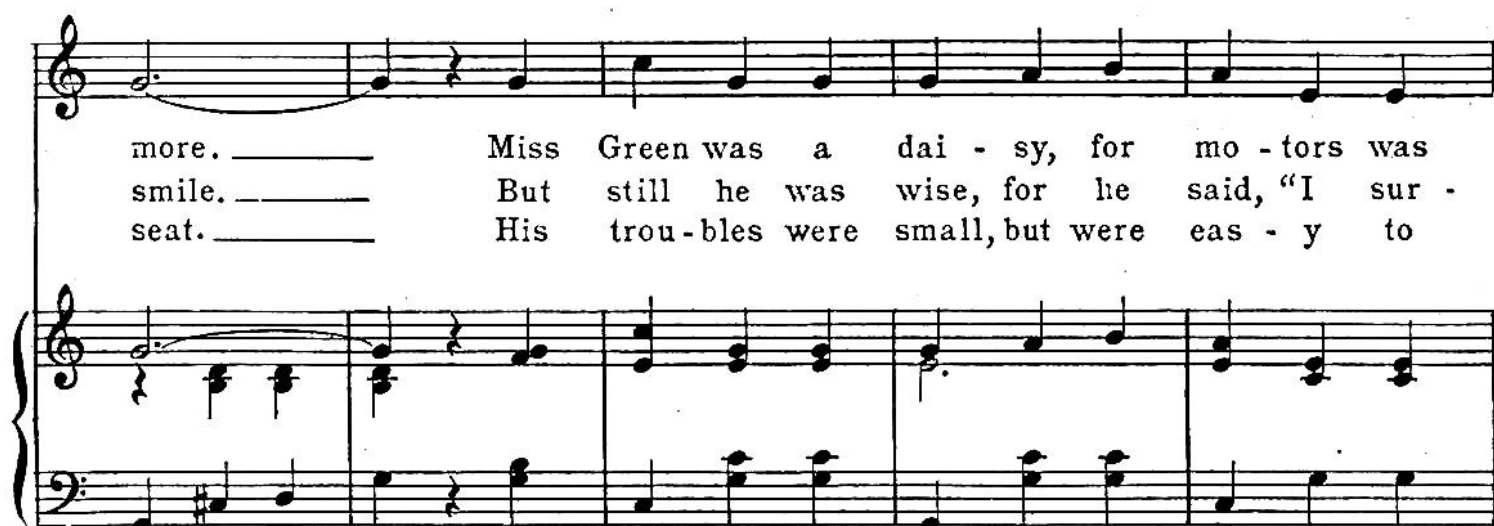

VOICE

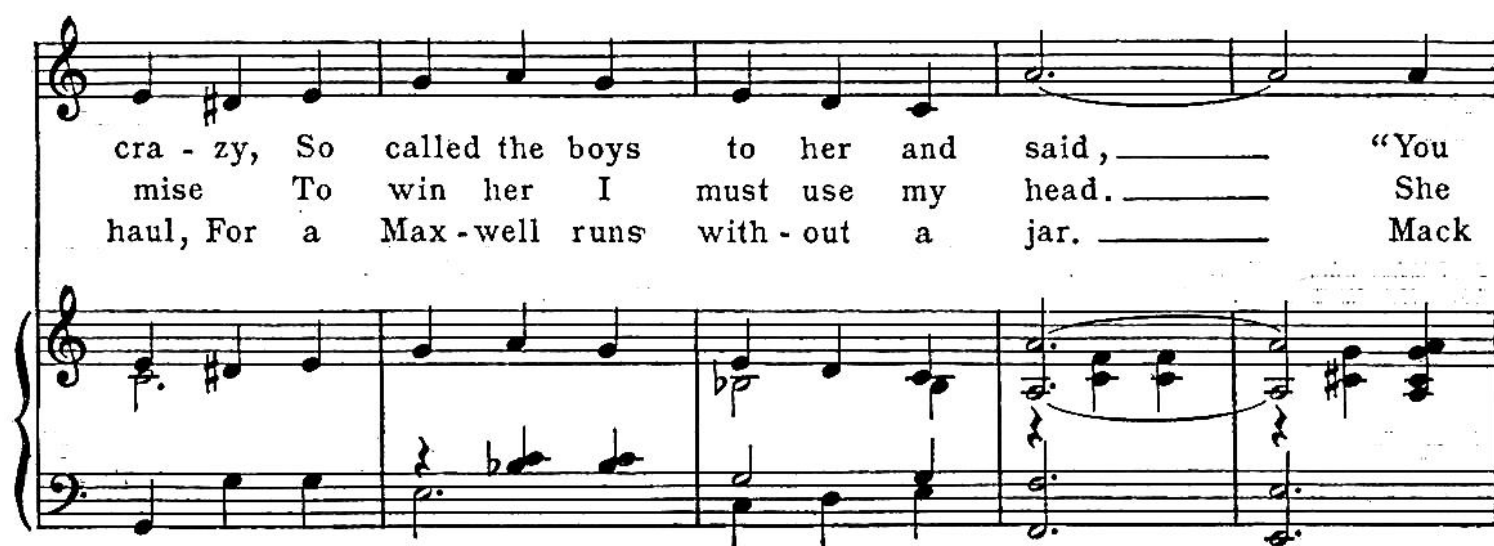

far But they each had a car, And each day add - ed one or two face With a form full of grace, And a touch of the skies in his fall, Sure, the stork made a call, And poor Mack had to add one more more. _____ Miss Green was a dai - sy, for mo - tors was smile. _____ But still he was wise, for he said, "I sur - seat. _____ His trou - bles were small, but were eas - y to cra - zy, So called the boys to her and said, _____ "You mise To win her I must use my head. _____ She haul, For a Max - well runs with - out a jar. _____ Mack all want my hand, so now just un - der - stand, The wants a good car; and the best car by far Is the need - ed more space for each new smil - ing face, So he poco cresc.

boy with the best car I'll wed."
Max - well, and that's e - nough said.
bought a Max - well tour - ing car.

CHORUS

Now Mack's swell car was a Max - well, — So he won this

p-f

lit - tle dear, — For his car ex - celled in the tests that were held, And he left all the rest in the rear. ——— They set a fast pace, but Mack won the race; One by one all the poor riv - als fell, ——— But Mack went a - head and the girl - ie he wed, For Mack's swell car was a Max - well. Now Max - well.