I Just Want A Daddy

(I Can Call My Own)

Words and Music by THOMAS DORSEY

Moderato

Till Ready

feel-ing sad,

I'm aw-ful gloom-y and blue

A lov-ing Dad-dy, he could make me glad let me take a chance with you,—

I want the peo - ple all to un - der - stand

I would give a mil-lion for a righ-teous man he may be sha-dy or he may be fair,—

I will call him Dad - dy

an - y - where

Oh I'm blue to - day— Won't you list-en Dad-dy while I say:

rit poco

CHORUS (rather slow)

I ain't no Doc-tor but I'll ease your pain,

I ain't no Brake-man but I'll p f

stop your train, I ain't good look-ing and I don't dress fine

I'm a lov-ing Ma-ma with a pleas-ing mind I'm built for com-fort and not for speed, Got ev-'ry-thing that a - ny man could need

I'm get-ting tired of liv-ing all a - lone, I just want a Dad-dy I can call my own. I just want a Dad-dy I can call my own. call my own.
