I Wonder What It Means

Words & Music
By ARMAND J. PIRON

In my home town ev' - ry - where you go. —
Once a min - es - tral came home to show. —

The peo - ples talk is a - bout
The man - a - ger heard so much rag - time Joe — When he takes his ear - net and be - gins to blow — They talk of Joe — He told his di - rec - tor come and go with me — No all cry with glee — and then they ask him to play more doubt rag - time Joe — and I will fi - nal - ly a - gree

Joe has a fun - ny lit - tle
He — then in - tro - duced him - call he makes — In an - y com - po - si - tion — it will take. — self to Joe — And asked him if with this great — show he'd go. —

If you will list - en I will sing— The fun-ny lit-tle call that makes Joe grin.—
 Joe said he would if he could play— His fun-ny lit-tle call that goes this way.—

REFRAIN

Ta ta ta ta ta I won-der what it means it's not a bu-gle call I know (^{Spoken} dog gone it) Ta ta ta ta ev'-ry where it seems I hear it more and more the boys in the streets— they seem to know— They say they got that call from rag-time Joe —
 (Whistle—)

Ta ta ta ta ta I won-der what it mean ask Joe (^{Spoken} dog gone) he knows (^{Spoken} Do you know) knows.
