

Popular Music and Songs Publication.

A True Story

SHOE BLUES

WRITTEN BY

FRANK PINE.

MUSIC BY

SYLVESTER L. CROSS

Price Thirty Cents net. Order by Mail. Postage stamps accepted.

Frank Harding, Publisher,

Music Printer and Publisher

228 East 22nd Street,

N. Y. CITY.

SHOE BLUES

SONG

Words by.
FRANK PINE

Music by
SYLVESTER L. CROSS

Moderato

TILL READY

I asked a lit-tle blue eyed girl for a date the oth-er
I'm feel-ing ver-y blue, now, since me she did not I'm feel-ing ver-y lone-some and I have got the night, But she said I have no shoes, that are fit to be in sight; I choose, I feel as if I'm worn out just like a pair of shoes; My blues, To think that girl would tell me she had-n't an-y shoes; Now went to the dance a - lone that night and I found that she was there, She heart is — beat - ing fast - er and I — know it's full of holes, My they have — oft - en told me they had not a thing to wear, I went with an - oth - er fel - low and her feet — were not bare.

VAMP

head feels — like it's burst - ing like — a pair of — soles.
know their clothes are ver - y scarce and now their feet are — bare.

CHORUS

Shoes, shoes, shoes, — I've got the blues, blues, blues, — She left me brok - en heart - ed, —

cresc.

— when she was out of shoes, oh,

Shoes, shoes, shoes, — I've got the blues, blues, blues, — Now tell me did she lie, or did she go and buy those shoes? I've got the blues, the shoe blues! — blues! —