once done had a gal named Lu - cy Jane, Who yal - ler coon that they called "Handsome Abe!" He tried, in vain, but could not get it out. A - al - so thought that all coons was the same; 'Cause I carv'd a coon for trif - ling with his babe! They ar - nev - er worked but al - ways loafed a - bout, So rest - ed him and took him off to jail, And i - dea struck his gal and she ran back, And one day she got mad and put me out! ..... Now a brought him to the judge, a look-ing pale. ..... His start - ed to tear up the rail-road track! ..... Tho' she yaller coon sits at my ta-ble Keeps eat - ing up ev' - ry - thing, And gal stood as his lawyer And plead-ed for his case, She saved that yaller man's life, All pas - sen-gers she did kill, And when I ask her for to take me back, to me she'll be-gin to sing:

says, "Your honor, don't you send him to jail but let me take his place:
told the judge on the 'stall-ment plan she'd pay their fun'-ral bill!

And I 'tends to buy him all the ci - garettes and chewing-gum
And I 'tends to keep him from a - do - ing all the hard work It might a' spoiled his 'plex - i - on if o - ver him a train of cars dat I can! I'm goin' to get him some cork and dat I can! I'm goin' to see if the President won't like that ran! I'm goin' to buy him some bran' new hose and put him on the stage as a min - strel man, 'Cause I just na-tur-ly put him in - to Congress as an al - der - man, " " " " " " make him a fire - man, as soon as I can, " " " " " "
loves dat yal - ler man .....
