to a pret - ty pass," Said Sen - a - tor Hem - ing - does - n't choose to run," Said Sen - a - tor Hem - ing -

-way to Sen-a - tor Brush, "This land of ours is -way to Sen-a - tor Brush, "I've de - cid - ed los-ing all its class, And men to - day have hearts as soft as I shall be the one," And as he made his speech there came a mush," And as they comb their beards from left to right hush, "And I shall be e - lec - ted all be - cause Old Hem-ing-way cried out with all his might:- I'm the man to make a lot of laws."

CHORUS

"You take your girl - ie out to a show, There's no - bod - y that "(They) wear their dress - es a - bove the knee, When they're sit - ting, Oh, she don't know, Oh - Ho - Hoe-dy - Oh-Do, There ought to be a law a-against gosh! Oh, gee! Oh - Ho - Hoe-dy - Oh-Do, There ought to be a law a-against that!— You talk of mus-ic and oth - er things, She keeps talk-ing of that!— If you tell them that they are cute, There's a breach of dia-mond rings, Oh - Ho - Hoe-dy - Oh-Do, There ought to be a law a-against pro-mise suit, Oh - Ho - Hoe-dy - Oh-Do, There ought to be a law a-against that! Let's hold an E - lec - tion — and fight it out, — We need pro-that! Let's hold an E - lec - tion — and fight it out, — We need protec - tion — there is no doubt. — You wine and dine 'em till tec - tion — there is no doubt. — You spend your mon-ey and half-past four, Take them home and they slam the door, Oh - Ho - buy and buy, Bye and bye there's an - oth - er guy, Oh - Ho - Hoe-dy-Oh-Do, There ought to be a law a gainst that!" "You that!"

 Hoe-dy-Oh-Do, There ought to be a law a gainst that!" "They that!"
