

RAG-TIME MIXES MY BRAIN

WILL WEST

AS SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS
BY WILL WEST
IN THE ROGERS BROS' LATEST FARCE
"IN WASHINGTON"

BY JOHN J. McNALLY
Management of Klaw & Erlanger

LYRIC BY J. SHERRIE MATHEWS

MUSIC BY
GUSTAV LUDERS

SINGING RIGHTS RESERVED.

THE ROGERS BROS. PUBLISHED BY BROADWAY THEATRE BUILDING, NEW YORK.
(B'WAY & 41ST ST.)

CHAS SHEARD & CO
LONDON, ENG

5

WURCH,
C. DEATERS
247 CH. ST. N.Y.

sing a song or crack a wease with ease there, O - ver
I ac - cos - ted by a rough quite tough here "Mis - ter

here by Jove its quite a diff-rent thing For its rag-time you de-mand, rag-time stake me to somedough'and I re-plied "I've no meat and I can't bake," Well said

I can't un - der - stand, For you talk it, walk it, yes it has the fling - my word!
he "You take the cake", As a "come on" two to one you cant be tied - ab - surd!

CHORUS.

By jin - go rag-time mix - es my brain, My word its a sil - ly lit - tle

sil - ly re-frain you sing it, you know and fling it what ho, ev - en rag - time talk seems to be all the go, I get no rest by nightor by day its a hop, skip, jump, sort of ta-boom-de - aye, You may call it rag, but I say its jag, but they tell me its quite "Au fait".