MOSQUITO RAG.

Words by ARTHUR LONGBRAKE.

Music by ED. EDWARDS.

Moderato.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is for the piano, showing hands playing eighth-note patterns. The bottom staff is for the voice. The music is in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat. The piano part includes dynamic markings like f and p, and performance instructions like "r.h. l.h. r.h. l.h." and "Vamp.". The vocal part has lyrics in a ragtime style. The score is divided into sections: "Moderato.", "Voice.", and "Vamp.". The lyrics are:

He said "I love you dear to beat the band," Just then a big mos-qui-to bit his hand,
 He stoop'd to kill a big one bit-ing him, And by mistake he slapp'd her on the limb,

With themselves they soon were play-ing tag . . . To that Mos-qui-to Rag.
 That one did-n't bite me then, she said, . . . But he struck me in stead

The musical score consists of two staves of music in 2/4 time, key signature of one flat. The top staff features a melody line with lyrics: "here with three;" "Oh! oh! that Mos. qui_to Rag, . . . Oh! oh! that Mos.", followed by "qui_to Rag, Ev'ry movement has a mean_Ing and each movement means a bite," and concluding with "(Mosquito buzzing.)". The bottom staff provides harmonic support with chords. The score includes dynamic markings like 'r.h.' and 'l.h.' above certain notes. The piece concludes with a repeat sign and two endings, labeled 'I' and 'II', both leading back to the harmonic progression.
