

T-Bone STEAK

Words and Music

by

SAM (LEWIS) RIDENOUR

Publisher.
HUNTINGTON, W.VA.

T-BONE STEAK

By SAM (LEWIS) RIDENOUR

Writer of

"Elk Ski" "Dreams" "National Guard"
"Toko San" "When The Moon Shines" etc.

A la Ethiope You I

TILL READY

talk bout de plac - es you nev - er went An you talk bout de mon - ey you nev - erspent You jes took a mah gal yes mah hon - ey gal To dis swell res - tu - rant for to get some eats I says make a late call down on Dark-town street An de cul-lud a - ris - to - crats meet, You can ba - by jes ord - er dis is mah treat For de monkeys all here knows mah meat, Den dat sure roll some bones an a deal de pack You can start wid a jit or a two - bit stack And dere black ba - by said hon - ey aint you read Bout de hoof and de mouth de - cease cat - tle dead But den res - tau - rant is sure some el - e - gant You can get dat T - bone steak.

I can't read and one more chance I'll take Dey can give me T - bone steak.

CHORUS

T - bone steak is what I loves the best in - deed I do, — I'm tell - in' you,

T - bone steak with all the trim - ins fine am right in line, — De ozz - in kind You can eat yo' con' bread an yo' las - sas too You can eat all yo chick - en an kid - ney stew But a

T - bone steak de best of meat to eat am sure a treat Um hum. —