

Respectfully Dedicated to
MRS. M. E. ROBERTS, of Atlanta, Ga.

WHEN YOU DANCE THAT LOVIN' RAG

Have You Heard the Latest Bear Dance?
SOME RAG

THE LATEST SONG HITS

Words and Music by

W. H. PETWAY

WRITER OF

That Dog Gone Rag
That Home in Tennessee
When You and I were Sweethearts
I Long to See my Old Sweetheart again
While the Moon Shines Bright.

Published by
W. H. PETWAY
NASHVILLE, TENN.

W. H. PETWAY

When You Dance That Loving Rag

Arranged by Rudolph Moehl.

Words and Music by

W. H. PETWAY

Writer of "I Long To See My Old Sweetheart Again"
While The Moon Shines Bright., etc.

Moderato

VAMP TILL READY

VOICE Not too Fast

Hear that mu-sic ba-by as it soft-ly plays Just keep on a danc-ing 'till the Oh that's the place where they all do that dance For goodnessakes it puts me

judge-ment day it makes you leave your hap-py home in a trance Oh that pi-an-o man aint be grand

Out in the wide world there to roam I feel so queer
Can't he play to beat the band Let's take a slide

I want you near To dance this rag-time my dear.
and do that glide Now while you are by my side.
rit.

CHORUS

Just lis - ten kid to that — big — bass drum

Oh aint it — clas - sy — that's go - ing some I nev - er heard mu - sic like that be - fore

Love - ly lor - dy hon - ey get off my toe

Look at that — cou - ple be - hind — you there

They are now do - ing that — grizz - ly bear

Your tongue will sag — and your feet will drag — as you dance that Lov - in' rag.