*Not too fast
Till ready.*

I've been a-round this world a bit, I've seen 'bout all the sights I've I've travelled here, I've travelled there, from dark-ness to white lights But heard a lot of mel-o-dies a-bout the gay white lights But when I went to New-port News I now I wish that I were back a-mong the south-ern nights For when I hear those dark-ies voic-es heard real south-ern blues The blues is all that you can hear down there in New-port News.

chant that drag-gy blues I tell you folks I wish I were a-gain in New-port News.

Chorus.

Oh! New-port News Blues is the lat-est fad, New-port News Blues will surely drive you mad, You start in to jazz, — then you raz-ma-taz, — Oh way down south — in the land of cot-ton Your

Un-cl Sam has not for-got-en, Your a-way — a-way far a-way from Broad-way —

New-port News Blues is the fad — down there, they sing and dance that haunting mel-ody — Oh! when you're down in New-port News, What do they want to play that dog-gone blues for? The blues of New-port News. — Oh! News. —
