

THE TENNESSEE BLUES SONG

WORDS BY ARTHUR F. HOLT

MUSIC BY
WILLIAM WARNER

PUBLISHED BY

JOS. W. STERN & CO., 102-104 W. 38th St., N. Y.

Efficient

The Tennessee Blues.

Words by Arthur F. Holt.

Music by William Warner.

Moderato.

Piano. f

Until Voice. mf

Voice.

Ah'm feel - in' blue, _____ clean through and through. _____ Dat gal Ah Dat Su - sie Lee, _____ done write to me: _____ "Ah got an -
 If Ah could be, _____ in Ten - nes - see, _____ Ah'd spoil dat

p

love so mad - ly, done treat me might - y bad - ly; She ud - der nig - ger, han' _____ som - er an' big - ger, Some dar - keys spoon - in', queer _____ dat hon - ey - moon - in', Ah'd

Copyright MCMXVI by W. T. Pierson & Co. New York.

8195-4

International Copyright Secured.

All Rights Reserved.

Copyright assigned MCMXVI to Jos. W. Stern & Co. New York say she'd leave me nev - er, say she'd be for - ev - er true.

 clas - sy kid am Ben - ny, swell - est coon in Ten - nes - see.
 carve dat han' - sum Ben - ny, down in sun - ny Ten - nes - see.

An' den she make mah poor heart
 He cuts a dash, spends heaps o' Der'd be a scrap, Ah'd chase dat ache, give me de shake. Left Su - sie cash, an' Ah'm his mash. Dat scrump-tious chap, clean off de map. But Ah'm in Lee in Ten - nes - see. She say she'd be mah hon - ey, if coon can sho' - ly spoon. He sets me all a flut - ter, melt bad, it makes me mad. Judge say Ah took some chick - ens, soak

Ah earned lots o' mon - ey; Ah done send eb - 'ry pen - ny to — — mah heart lak but - ter; Oh gol - ly, he's a dan - dy, lov -
 — me lak de dick - ens; It haint no use a squeal - in', but — — dat gal in Ten - nes - see. An' den she — ey su - gar can - dy coon. Ah guess he'll — Ah cant help feel - in' sad. Dis jail am threw — me down, mah Sue, — dat's why Ah'm blue.

 do, — Ah'm done with you, — good-bye, Ski - doo.
 new, — Ah cant break through. — Oh, Lord, Ah'm blue.

Chorus.

Ah want to go back to sun - ny Ten - nes - see, — Ten - nes - see.

Ah want to win back mah hon-ey, Su-sie Lee, mah-Su-sie

Lee. Far from de ole home mah ach-in' heart am a-break-in', eb-'ry-ting seems blue. In all dis wide, wide world Ah want just one gal, an' dat's Sue.