

POPULAR EDITION

PLEASE DON'T JAZZ MY MAMMY'S LULLABY

SONG

Lyric and Music by JOHN E. BRODERICK

5
JEROME H. REMICK & CO.
NEW YORK DETROIT

Please Don't Jazz My Mammy's Lullaby

Song

Words and Music by JOHN E. BRODERICK

Moderato

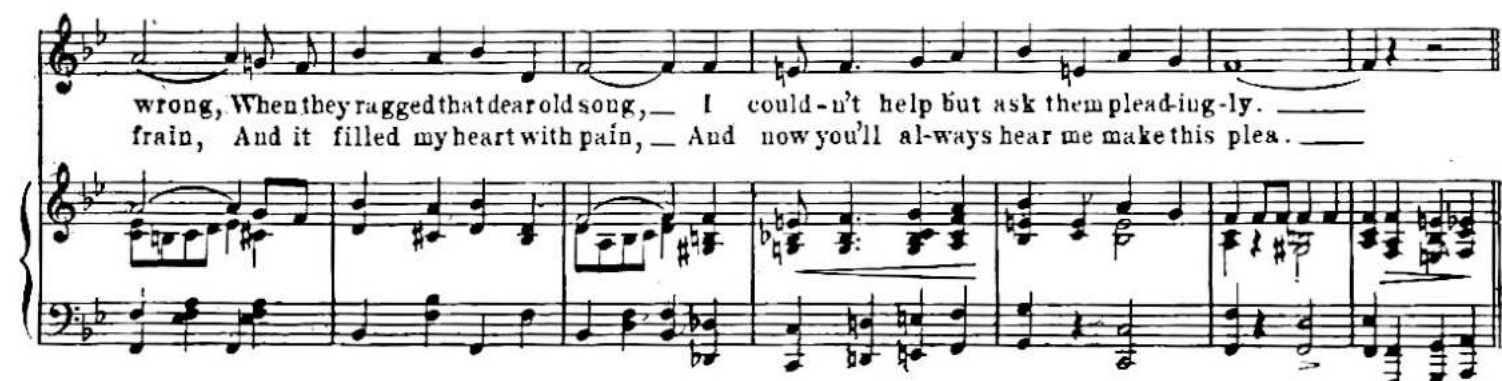

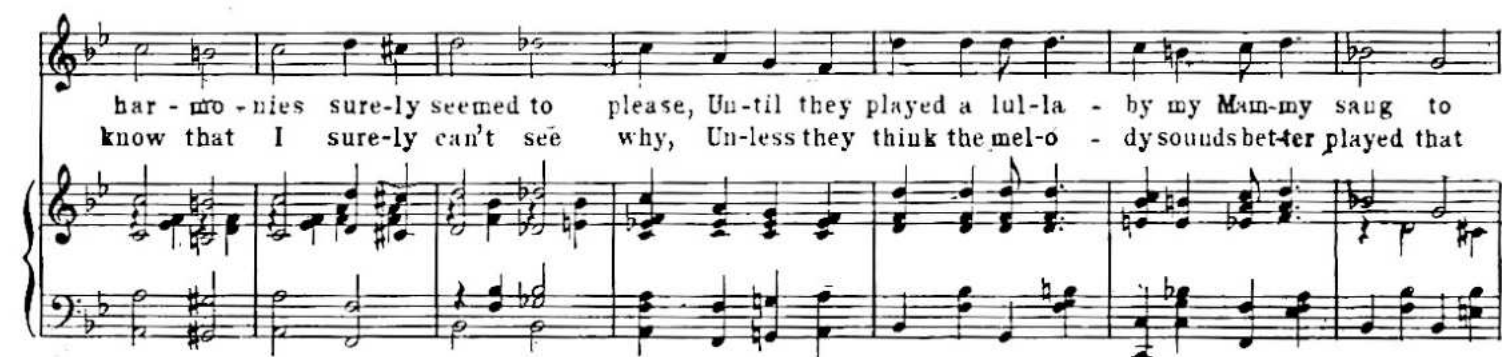

Piano

VOICE

I heard a Jazz band play-ing rag-gy mel-o-dies, And their Per-haps those Jazz bands like to Jazz a lul-la-by, But I

VAMP

CHORUS

Please don't Jazz my Mam-my's lul-la - by, Go to sleep my pf

Ba-by, Wont you hush - a - bye. I'll al-ways re-mem-ber those dear old child-hood days, And my dear old Mam-my with her dear old fash-ioned ways. God love her, She would gen-tly take me on her knee, And this lul-la - by she'd sing to me.

She sang it to me sweet-ly ev-'ry night, And be-lieve me I know when it's right, So

1 please don't Jazz my Mam-my's Lul-la - by. 2 by. D.S.

f D.S.