

Rodolph Valentino

BLUES

Words and Music by Jack Frost

RODOLPH VALENTINO
STARED IN
PARAMOUNT PICTURES

MADE IN U.S.A.

Rodolph Valentino Blues

By JACK FROST

Moderato

f

Pret-ty lit-tle Ma-ry Brown,

mp

mp

Nev-er cared to go a - round, With an - y vil-lage fel - lows, It seemed she al-ways turned them down. Boys all used to won-der why,

So they peeked in on the sly And saw her sit - ting

With her knit - ting Then they heard her sigh: _____

CHORUS

Oh Mis-ter Ro - - dolph Val - en - ti - no _____ I know I've got the Ro-dolph Val-en-ti-no blues _____ And when you come _____ up-on the screen, Oh! ——— You're so ro-man-tic, I go fran-tic at the views ——— You've got a way of mak-ing love ——— That Wal-ly Reid knows noth-ing of ——— And the la-dy that you're woo-ing Don't know what you're do-ing You must have tak-en les-sons from a tur-tle dove I saw you play - - ing "Hea-vy lov-er," ——— out on the de - sert of Sa - ha - ra in "The Sheik" Just think of all the ground you cov - er, I saw you mak - ing love in Fris - co that same week But when you walk up - on the cur - tain, I'll say you cer - tain - ly do know the kind to choose, That's why I've got the mov - ie scene, oh! The you know what I mean, oh! The Ro - doph Val - en - ti - no blues, Oh! Mis - ter blues