I've got to say Up 'till to-day that there's been some-thing al-ways wrong with No use to try I can't de-ny that mel-o-dies are al-ways on my me I had mumps and mea-sles and the whoop-ing cough.

brain Then I try to think a-bout some oth-er thing.

Seems that ev-ry one of them near took me off Now I've one af-flie - tion
But my ears with blue-y blues for - ev - er ring It has got me guess-ing

And I've got con-vic-tion that it comes from that new mel-o-dy
And it's so dis-tress-ing that I think I am go - ing in - sane

CHORUS

'Cause I am all broke out with blues — I've got a mean old mal - a - dy — I've got to hear them so I'll lose — this men-tal mis - er - y — Take way your pow-ders Take a-way your pills Take 'way your doc-tor

There ain't no suf-f'ring And there ain't no pain Just got the shivers

And your doc-tor bills Keep your stim - u - la - tion I want syn - co - pa - tion
When I hear that strain I can't live with-out them Ev - 'ry - bo - dy shout them

1 To Patter Last

I'm all broke out with blues 'Cause I am blues. blues.

PATTER

Pneu-mon - ya Had it bad Gout got me
Spine was bent I was scared Pen - dix loose.

Made me sad Weak heart too Scared to death And I
No one cared 'Vi - tus dance Head to shoes But I
