The piano introduction consists of two systems of four measures each. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The melody is played in the treble staff, featuring a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, ending with a final chord in the treble staff.

VOICE

The vocal melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a common time signature. It consists of two lines of music. The first line contains the lyrics "It's nice to have a sweet-heart, a one and on - ly gal; — But" and the second line contains "We've stuck it out to - geth - er when ev - 'ry - thing went wrong. — · We've". The melody is simple and catchy, with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. Above the staff, there are six chords indicated by a grid of dots, corresponding to the notes in the melody.

It's nice to have a sweet-heart, a one and on - ly gal; — But We've stuck it out to - geth - er when ev - 'ry - thing went wrong. — · We've sweet-hearts come and go, — As you and I well know. I had our ups and downs; — We've shared the smiles and frowns. Through have-nt an-y sweet-heart, But I sure have got a pal. He's my dark and storm-y wea-ther By my side he's marched a long, Al-ways bud-dy and I'm his. What a great lit-tle guy he is!

rea-dy to go first, Al-ways will-ing to take the worst.

CHORUS

He's with me through thick and thin, — It makes no dif-f'rence, loss or win; — and that's the way I feel towards him — He's the kind — of a pal! When bad luck comes a - cross my track, — To give me an - y - thing I lack — He'd take the shirt right off his back, For he's that kind of a pal!

We seem to un - der - stand - each oth - er;

The first system of the musical score features a vocal melody in the upper staff and piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The vocal line begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. There are two key signature changes indicated by a double bar line and a key signature change symbol (from one flat to two flats).

He'd do more for me than a bro - ther. He's

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The vocal line has a quarter rest followed by a half note and then a quarter note. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line. The key signature remains two flats.

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The vocal line has a quarter rest followed by a half note and then a quarter note. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line. The key signature remains two flats.

stick to me right to the end, For he's that kind of a pal! pal! —

The fourth system concludes the piece. The vocal line has a quarter rest followed by a half note and then a quarter note. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line. The key signature remains two flats. The system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign, followed by two endings. The first ending leads back to the beginning of the system, and the second ending leads to the final cadence.
