

"TAXI"

SONG

Words by Harry D. Kerr
Music by Mel B. Kaufman

Composers of "ME-OW"

Sam Fox  Pub. Co
Cleveland

EUROPEAN REPRESENTATIVES, BOSWORTH & CO. LONDON

5

"TAXI"

GET THIS SONG
FOR YOUR PLAYER PIANO
OR TALKING MACHINE
Words by
HARRY D. KERR
Author of "Me-ow"

Music by
MEL B. KAUFMAN
Composer of "Me-ow"

One eve-ning while
That bell boy got din-ing, Where Broad-way lights are shin-ing, A bell boy stood wait-ing, A nerv-ous Be-cause he got no ser-vice, His yell-ing was tell-ing On twin kle in his eye; On tip-toes a-perch-ing For some-one he was ev-ry-one a-bout; They thought he was rag-ing, But he was on-ly search-ing, I pon-dered and won-dered Till he be-gan to cry, Oh,

pag-ing, While o-ver and o-ver He'd keep it up and shout, Oh,

CHORUS

(whistle)

(whistle)

Tax-i None an-y-where, Tax-i p-f

I've got a fare, And he tells me he wants a dou-ble seat-er,

He's all dolled up like he was goin' to meet 'er, Tax-i Drive an-y-

(whistle)

where, Tax-i They'll nev-er care, He's think-ing of (whistle)

Lit-tle tur-tle dove, They on-ly take a tax-i, When they love, love, love. love.

1 2

f