lone-some here with - out you, dear, I miss your cheer-y smile, I soon for - sake the friends you make You'll soon find out that they are wish that you would come back home to - day, Yes, I not the good old friends you had back here, — Some know that life is sim - ple in our lit - tle one horse town, And day you'll feel a long - ing for the good old days we knew, Be - yet we both were ve - ry hap - py here, You fore you said Good - bye and went a - way, It's sac - ri - fice your love for me, to wear an ev-'ning gown, I not too late to change your mind, I'm wait - ing here for you, I'd on - ly hope that you'll be hap - py, dear, _____ give my all to have you here to - day. _____

Chorus. p-f

Don't let the lights on Broad - way out-shine my love for you, dear, Don't let the sights on Broad - way, Make you for - get I'm true, dear, You've heard the fa - ble of the Moth and the Flame, — Don't think you're a - ble, dear, to win such a los - ing game, For that's one of Broad-way's pas - times, and they call it "The Girl — and the Game" Game —
