

IF YOU JUST MUST GO TO WAR

BRING THE KAISER BACK

"JAZZ" SONG

BY
GARLAND TUCKER
AND
HARRY BAISDEN
OF THE 163^d Depot Brigade, U.S.A.

Published by
HOMER-GARBER
DES MOINES, I.A.

If You Just Must Go to War Bring the Kaiser Back

GARLAND TUCKER and
HARRY BAISDEN

Not fast

Vamp

Slow

Rufe John-son Sam-uel Lee..... Was draft-ed for the arm - y..... To fight for When Rufe went o-ver sea..... He was with 'I' com-pan - y..... To con-quer

Peace and Lib-er - ty..... en - tire German - y.....

He had a girl whose name was Phoe-be Snow
And when he reached that fam-ous fir - ing line

She was wild a-bout that man so
It got hot for him there at times

She said dear please dont go and leave me.....
He was brave as an-y one could be.....

..... He said I've got to get the Kais - er's head..... When he left, here's what she said.....
..... Now Ruf - us John-son did - n't have a fear..... These words rang in his ear.....

CHORUS Not too fast

If you just must go to war,..... Bring the Kais-er back..... my Babe,..... Then my love will be for you just as sharp as an - y car-pet tack My lov - in'

(2d time 8va ad lib)

ba - by won't you stay In the good old U. S. A In the land of love and peace

..... and har-mon - y Now in Eur - ope cannons roar from shore to shore

..... my Babe If you leave me here I won't see you no more

..... My hon - ey lis - ten, My honey lis - ten, I thought I heard those cannons crack But if you

Hit with fist to imitate Cannon shot

just must go to war Bring the Kaiser back.

1 2