

MUSICAL CORONET.

IN A JUG

ANSWER TO

"LITTLE BROWN JUG"

[composed by Geo. S. Dwyer]

N^o 5. V. 2

NEW-YORK.

Published by FAIRCHILD & DWYER, 377 Sixth Ave.

American News Co. General Agents.

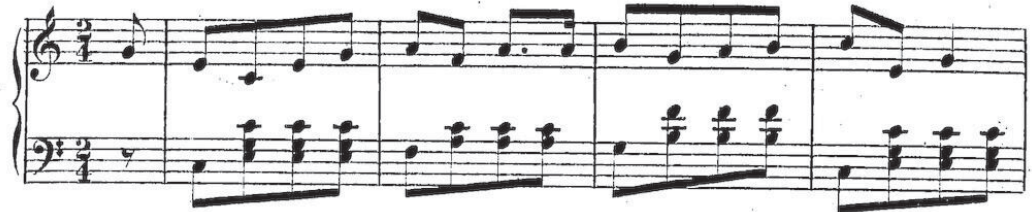

Entered according to Act of Congress, 1894, by Fairchild & Dwyer in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

IN A JUG.*

Answer to "Little Brown Jug."

Bottled and put up by
A. JUGGLER.

SONG and CHORUS.

* The words can be sung to the tune of "Little Brown Jug" if preferred, the same accompaniment serving for both.

Entered according to Act of Congress A. D. 1870 by Fairchild & Dwyer, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

CHORUS.

Ha! ha! ha! just bear and grin. When you have found you're tak - en in.

Ha! ha! ha! just bear and grin. When you have found you're tak - en in.

3. For she supposed that I was rich,
While I was on the self same "hitch"
The cruel vixen had me pinned
To one lame leg, and a bag of, —wind
Chorus.

5. To drown your misery and your plight,
"Little Brown Jug" may make you "tight,"
But I'll be bound though you may tug,
They'll get you "tighter" in a jug.

Chorus.

4. So if you've found that you are bit,
Just trace it to these women's wit;
They'll make you find a little later,
You've too much "o' the precious crature"

Chorus.

6. Now all young men just look ahead,
Be very careful who you wed,
The women laugh to think you're "sold."
While "all that glitters is not gold."

Chorus.