

SLIDE, KELLY, SLIDE

(TROMBONE BLUES)

Novelty
Song

Words by
"SLIDE" KELLY
Music by
GEO. F. BRIEGEL

SLIDE, KELLY, SLIDE

Words by
"SLIDE" KELLY

(Trombone Blues)

Music by
GEORGE F. BRIEGEL

Slippery

Piano

ff

I guess you've heard a - bout Mis-ter Jazz, And the Honk - y Tonk - y Tunes he used to play;

mp

But I - have found a fel - ler that has - What it takes to shake your wea-ry blues a - way; — Talk a - bout Mus-ic Mas-ters, just go down to the hall, - And you'll find out that Kel - ly is the King of 'em all; For the min - ute that he starts in to play, Ev - ry - bod - y in the place be-gins to sway; Keep it up, Keep it up, don't you dare to stop; — Lord - y how your trombone's moaning, And a sneez-in' and a-groan-in', Don't you let it drop;— Let her go, nice and slow, on a rag-gy strain;— You can have a-ny-thing you choose, If you'll just play the blues, O-ver and o-ver a gain.— Slide, Kel-ly, slide, When you start jaz-zin' on your lov-in' trom-bone,

You'd make a Quak-er shake her shoul-ders and home; Slide, Kel-ly, slide, There'll be a ri-ot if you ev-er re-fuse, To play the Trom-bone Blues.

Slide, Kelly, Slide 2

Hear "SLIDE, KELLY, SLIDE" on Columbia record No. 2775, Okeh record No. 4103, Gennet record No. 9020. and other rolls and records