

The Favorite Song of the millions during NEW YORK'S unparalleled reception to COL. CHARLES A. LINDBERGH after his epochal New York to Paris flight —

LINDY

B6276
403-2
C-1

YOUTH WITH THE HEART OF GOLD

FOX TROT

with UKULELE Accompaniment

Together with Tommy Allen's
famous old song
"LINDY LOU"
(By the Watermelon Vine)
in its Original Version.

Words and Music by Norman Leigh and
George L. Cobb

Symphonic Dance Orchestration
by
F. Henri Klickmann

Published by
WALTER JACOBS Inc.
BOSTON, MASS.

MADE IN U.S.A.

STAMER

Affectionately dedicated to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh

LINDY

Youth With The Heart Of Gold

Based on Tommy Allen's famous "Lindy Lou (By the Watermelon Vine)"

Tune Ukulele

A D F# B

Words and Music by NORMAN LEIGH
and GEORGE L. COBB

Moderato

Who's name do the peo-ple shout? Who's the boy we're wild a-bout?
Who's the lad we all ac-claim? Who's the boy that soared to fame?

Who's the won-der of the day?— Who's the Ace of the U. S. A?—
Mod-est, brave, with heart so true,— Lin-dy flew on to dare and do.—

CHORUS
Lin - dy, Lin - dy, youth with — the heart of gold;—

Lin - dy, Lin - dy, spir - it so bold;

Oth - ers talked a - bout try - in', You just stuck - to plain fly - in', Till you flew straight through the blue,-

So heres our hand - to you. you.