The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "'give to each coon, and ev - ery one of his kin, A ra - zor, chicken and a quart of ra - zors the gin and the nig - gers there They'll do eake walks through windows and".

nig - ger gin, When a coon sits in the pres - i - den - tial chair.
ev - en in the air, When a coon sits in the pres - i - den - tial chair.

The third system concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "nig - ger gin, When a coon sits in the pres - i - den - tial chair. ev - en in the air, When a coon sits in the pres - i - den - tial chair." The score ends with a double bar line.

CHORUS.

Oh! my, what fun, In Wash - ing - ton, You bet that
