The musical score consists of six systems of piano notation, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The first system is marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system continues the piece. The third system features a melodic line in the right hand with a slur. The fourth system shows a melodic line in the right hand with a slur. The fifth system is marked with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic and features a more active right hand with eighth notes. The sixth system includes first and second endings, indicated by bracketed measures and repeat signs.

CODA.

The musical score for the Coda of 'Maryland' is written for piano in 3/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score consists of six systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The melody in the treble staff is composed of chords and single notes, often beamed together. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The third system introduces a forte (f) dynamic. The fourth system features a fortissimo (ff) dynamic, with a more active bass line. The fifth system shows a change in the treble staff's texture, with more frequent sixteenth-note patterns. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final cadence, marked by a double bar line.
