Moderato

Piano

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second measure with the lyrics 'You've heard of the lamp of Al-lad-din'. The melody is simple and catchy, with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics continue through several lines, including 'That won-der-ful lamp of the fa-ble Brought', 'won-der-ful things it could do', 'If I had it to-day, I'd', 'jew-els and treas-ures ga-lore', 'If Al-lad-din lived now, I', 'rub it and say', 'Here's all that I want of you, Oh won't you.', 'feel that some-how', 'These are the things he'd ask for, Oh won't you.', and the chorus 'Bring back those hap-py days of child hood, won't you', 'Bring back the din-ners for a quar-ter, won't you', 'Bring back the pan-to-mines of Han-lon, won't you', 'Bring back the'. The score includes a 'rit.' (ritardando) marking towards the end of the verse. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, providing harmonic support for the vocal line.

You've heard of the lamp of Al-lad-din What That won-der-ful lamp of the fa-ble Brought won-der-ful things it could do If I had it to-day, I'd jew-els and treas-ures ga-lore If Al-lad-din lived now, I rub it and say Here's all that I want of you, Oh won't you. feel that some-how These are the things he'd ask for, Oh won't you.
