

HELLO HOOSIER TOWN

THE INDIANA CENTENNIAL SONG

WORDS AND MUSIC BY EDWIN S. EAST

WARNER. C. WILLIAMS. & CO. INDIANAPOLIS IND. U.S.A.

Hello, Hoosier Town

Words & Music
By EDWIN S. EAST

Moderato

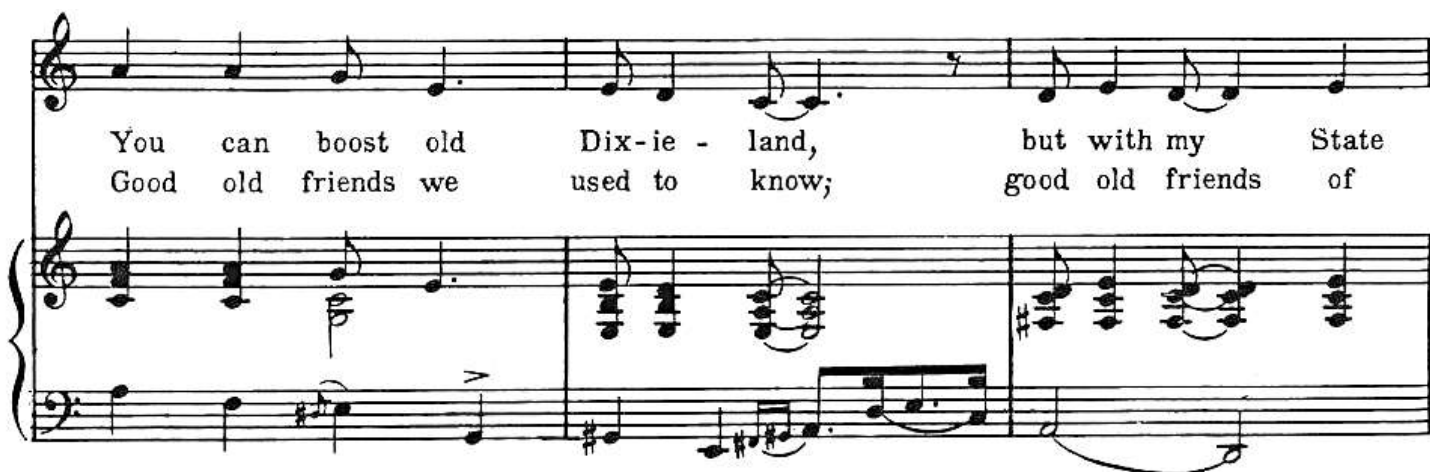

mf
Now you can sing of Ten-nes-Let's pack our grips and go back

see, _____ And the Ken - tuck - y Ju - bi - lee; _____
there; _____ We'll meet our friends from ev - 'ry - where; _____

You can boost old Dix-ie - land, but with my State Good old friends we used to know; good old friends of it won't stand, And there is "Michi-gan on the Farm" — Al-though for long a - go, And then we'll start out see-ing sights, — And make the me it has no charm. — You can have your old town hum of nights. — Come on down to Al - a - bam, But just give me In - di - an'. — Hoos-ier town So that we can sing once more. —

CHORUS

Hel - lo Hoos-ier town, I've come to see you, And to be with you.

p-f

From Se-at - - tle to Sa-van - nah, noth-ing's as good as good old

In-di - an - a Hel-lo, my home town I love you good-ness knows. I am go - ing back where friends will pass us, Back to good old Ind-ian - ap - 'lis,

I am go - ing back where friends will greet us, Back where all our pals will meet us,

Hel - lo, Hoos - ier town. town. D.S.