The Hot Tamale Man.

Words and Music by HERBERT INGRAHAM.

"Hot Ta-ma-les" when I was a boy, "Hot Ta-ma-les" filled my heart with joy;
My "Ta-ma-les" keeps a-way the fleas, My "Ta-ma-les" cures you of di-sease.

"Hot Ta-ma-les" made me feel so jol-ly and gay, Be-lieve it—true what I say,—
"Hot Ta-ma-les" makes you hot "By Gol-ly" they do, Be-lieve what I say is true,—

Mam—my, show'd me how to make them "Hot Ta-ma-les,"
When—you've got a head-ache try my "Hot Ta-ma-les,"

Said,— If I went broke to sell my "Hot Ta-ma-les,"
For—your wife and child's sake eat a "Hot Ta-ma-le,"

"Hot Ta-ma - le" wrapped in corn so - neat, "Hot Ta-ma - le" made of chick-en - meat,
My Ta-ma - le if you're grow-ing - old, My Ta-ma - les "g'wan to save your soul,

"Hot Ta - ma - le" makes you feel so jol - ly and gay, that's why - I say:
"Hot Ta - ma - le" makes you hot By Gol - ly, clear thro', just try - a few:

poco ritard.

CHORUS.

Buy a hot ta - mot' - out of a steam - in' pot, - While they are p-f

nice and hot, you'll get the best I got, - And no one e - ver made them like this "Bon Bud-dy"— can, they beat a chick-en fry-in' in the pan. Oh! they're nice and sweet and they are good to— eat— And they are filled with heat, eat one and you'll re - peat, 'Cause I'm that fa - mous Pee - ter the "Hot Ta - ma - le

Man. Buy a Mau.
