

BLUE GRASS BLUES

by Billy Meyers and Elmer Schoebel

Abe Lyman and His Ambassador Orchestra, Los Angeles, Cal.

BAUER'S MUSIC STORE
Everything Musical
SANDUSKY, OHIO

MADE IN U.S.A.

© 1937

Blue Grass Blues

By BILLY MEYERS and
ELMER SCHOEBEL

Good-bye so -
Oh! how I'll

Vamp

long ————— I'll soon be leav - ing ————— The folks back home ————— run ————— to kiss my mam - my ————— There will be one —————

will wel-come me. —————
big Jub - i - lee. —————

Down in Ken-tuck-y I'll be luck - y al-Down at the stat-ion my re-la-tions will tho' _____ I have no dough _____ But I know

 be _____ to welcome me _____ You'll a - gree

CHORUS

I will lose "Blue Grass Blues" when I see my old Ken-tuck-y home How I'll sigh Oh!

me oh my, when I see how all the kids have grown The old hometown quartet will be there you can bet With songs you can't for-get they'll be har-mon - iz , in' well I'm just sur-mis - in' Folks in town called me a clown just an - other Huckle - ber-ry Finn. Tho' they're wise they'll be sur-prised when this roll-ing stone comes roll-ing in Right to the crowd I'm gon-na yell out loud Hey! there Say! there just spread the news that I'm home to lose and for - get those Blue Grass Blues. Blues.