

"A SONG THAT WILL LIVE"

Moore

THE LADIES' AID SONG

AS GOOD AS
"THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST"

WORDS
and MUSIC
by
HARRY MOORE

*Published for
The Author*

AUTHOR OF
SWEET NORA DOON
THE ENGINEER'S LAST GOOD BYE
THAT'S WHAT THE LITTLE GIRL SAID, ETC.

MUSIC PUBLISHERS
MUSGRAVE BROS. & DAVIES

TORONTO, CANADA.

COPY DEPOSITED NO. 28391

THE LADIES AID

HARRY MOORE

PIANO

f

The folks had all as-sem-bled with the
The pas-tor's sal-'ry tak-en up brought pas - tor in the chair, The dis - cus - sions were much heat - ed for dis - out this sol - emn news, That — man - y peo - ple came to church but sen - sion filled the air. They'd met to take pro - ceed - ings to few paid for their pews; That cash was slow in com - ing and help their church — a — long And to raise the pas — tor's sal — ry (he'd been — things were go — ing to Ned; That — it would take con — sid — ra — ble to re — work — ing for a song) "We need a bell," said Dea — con Brown, to call the folks to pray — "That pair the old church shed. Old Dea — con Brown then took the floor, friends all this means much work; There one costs but two hundred that rings a — cross the way" But an — o — ther dea — con but — ted in, said is no time for id — le — ness, there is no time to shirk; This — church can't serve the Mas — ter un — he "friends I'm a — afraid we — can — not make con — nect — ions with — out the Lad — ies Aid,, less these bills be paid; so I move a res — o — lu — tion that we ask the Lad — ies Aid,,

Chorus

5

The Lad-ies Aid — do not par-ade, They love to sew and spin; Upheld by right, From morn till night, To ban-ish ev-'ry sin: — They have built most ev-'ry church on earth, They see that all is paid — So let's go down to Miss - us Brown's And join the Lad-ies Aid. — Aid. —