I'm so glad — I came a — long — I'm just right where I be — long —
On your toes — come on Re — morse — Boy I've pick'd my-self some horse —

Here in Dix — ie it's Der-by Day — Look a — round see the throng so hap — py Come on ba — by I've bet on you — See he's lead — ing the course so pret — ty

Bless the hors — es ev — ry one — When they start there'll be some fun — Who's that step — ping in — to place — Law'd he's set an aw — ful pace — My loose my head — a-bout a thorough bred — Look they're off just see — how they run — bank-roll's lost — he's pass-ing old Re — morse — That's old Sun Briar win — ning the race —

CHORUS

Here they come— those Dix-ie rec-ord breakers Ev-ry stride just cov-ers sev'-ral

p-f

a-eres Old Par-son Lee has bet on a horse— and you can hear him a cheer-in'

Come a-long come a-long Re-morse and Old Black Joe— is do-in' lots of bluff-in'

Claims his nag— will run a mile in noth-in' A Dix-ie band makes you an-dercresc

stand that it's Der-by Day in Dix-ie-land—
