I al-ways mind my biz-ness, Keep You've heard of Bos-ton Gar-ters, No go-ing right a-long; And if you mind your biz-ness, You'll met-al can touch you; You've heard of Hein-z's Pic-kles, And nev-er get in wrong. I've got a brand new sweet-ie, Not Col-gate's Tooth Paste, too. Now, you can tell a Ford Car, 'Cause they fat or not too thin, I love to rave a - ad - ver - tise it so, But when you meet my bout her, But please don't "lis - ten to in?"

sweet - ie, Say! I just want to know:

CHORUS p-f marcato

How I love her and she loves me Is no - bo - dy's biz-ness, How she can kiss, be - lieve me this, Is no - bo - dy's biz-ness. We met the preach-er yes-ter-day And this is all I had to say: How

I love her and she loves me Is no-bo-dy's biz-ness. How biz-ness.

Extra Choruses

1

Oh, she's so pretty, she's so cute,
That's nobody's business;
And how she looks in a bathing suit
Is nobody's business.
I love this baby, there's no doubt,
And she knows what it's all about,
But where we go when we step out
Is nobody's business.

2

She bobs her hair and takes a smoke,
That's nobody's business;
She rolls her socks and tells a joke,
That's nobody's business.
Oh, she's so lovely, she's so sweet,
And when we dine I always treat.
How she can eat and eat and eat
Is nobody's business.

3

Oh, she's a WOW, I love her how,
Is nobody's business;
Oh, yes sir, she's my baby now,
That's nobody's business.
I don't know what this baby's got
But what she's got, she's got a lot,
And does she do the Charleston hot
Is nobody's business.

4

How she can dance, how she can sing
Is nobody's business;
She's got a car and a diamond ring,
That's nobody's business.
She's got a cozy little flat,
Oh she's got this and she's got that,
But where this baby got them at,
Is nobody's business.
