Pret - ty Sal, Hon - ey gal, lis - ten while I woo, Pret - ty Sal, Hon - ey gal, won't you tell me, please,

While I tell to you that I loves you true; Lis - ten now while I vow Do no long - er tease, set my heart at ease, An - swer soon, tell dis coon by some mag - ic art, You got de key of dis poor dar - key's heart. A - dat your his a - lone, And dat you'll share his lit - tle cab - in home, A - float - ing on de breezes I think I hear your name, De night, when I'm a - dreaming I on - ly dreams of you, In birds and all de bee-zes am a - sing - ing of your fame, day light I'm a - sche - ming 'bout what I ought to do.

Pret - ty Sal, Hon - ey gal, I wants yer to be mine, Pret - ty Sal, Hon - ey gal, I wants to change yer name,

'Cause you're sweet - er den de mel - on on de vine.
 'Cause you're sweet - er den de sug - ar on de cane.

REFRAIN

Tenderly

Ain't you com - ing out dis eve-ning, Ain't you com-ing out to - night? Ain't ye going to be re - ceiv - ing, Ain't ye going to be po - lite? Don't you hear your hon - ey sing - ing, Don't you hear his ban - jo ring - ing? Good Law-dy! "Hun", I'm wait-ing; Ain't you com-ing out to night? — Ain't you night?
