I went up to Chi-ca-go A-bout a year a-go, A I beat it back to Chi' With blood right in my eye, To lot of mon-ey had to spend, I put up at the Blackstone, To try and win back all my mon,' I looked up all the Ball games, And make a great big show, But went broke pay-ing my rent,— bet on teams of fame, But lost some on ev-'ry one,—

I'm a mooch-in' now. And I'll tell you how—Once more out of luck, In the same old rut.

CHORUS

Hel - lo Bill Oh wont you lend me a Nick - el, I'm up against it— I'm in a Pick - el,

So hun - gry, — in this town, No more free lunch to be found,

Went to the Ball game and I lost all my dough, The Team I bet on they play-ed too dog-gone slow, So come a - cross with a help-ing hand, Lend me a Nick-el for a
