

Be A Good

LITTLE GUIGIGEN

— AND LAY IN MY LAP —

By JAMES P. DOYLE

JAMES P. DOYLE, MUSIC PUBLISHER
BUFFALO 552 E. Eagle St. NEW YORK

BE A GOOD LITTLE CHICKEN

(AND LAY IN MY LAP)

3

Allegro Moderato

By J. PATRICK DOYLE

fall-ing in - to line, I used the term on mine, And betake a while you see, to learn how things will be, And may-be lieve me boys it's work-ing like a charm. Just take this tip from me, If you then I'll tell you all the things I know. But per-haps you'd bet-ter start With a have a hen-ner-y, A - dopt the phrase and use it on your farm.

chick-en in your heart, For then you'll know the game from high to low.

CHORUS

I have a lit - tle chick - en whom I call on ev' - ry night, And we have our lit - tle scraps like lov - ers true, Then I take her by the hand, And in lov - ing words com - mand The ma - ny lit - tle things she ought to do; But she'll pull and pout and twist, And say "You hurt my wrist" And try her ver - y best to land a slap, But I win her with a word When I war - ble like a bird: "Be a good lit tle chick en and lay in my lap.'" I lay in my lap.'" D.C.