shake; She passed me up and turned me down in the mean-est kind of shape; She me, They'd try to drown their sad - ness in one great ev - er - last - ing spree, And used to think a lot of me, at least that is what she said, And I some might e - ven go so far as to wish that they were dead, Oh! but thought that all that goo-goo talk was strictly on the dead; Now I used to buy her gee those guys give me a pain, they're foolish in the head; 'Coz if you go daft or choc 'late creams, just like fel-lers will, you know, And then sometimes when I was flush, I'd take to drink 'coz a girl has flung you down, She'll talk a-bout the heart she broke to take her to the show; Then the best I get is the froz-en face and I'm ev - 'ry girl in town; 'Tain't the coin I blew now that wor-ries me, nor the turned down like a chump, Since her un-cle died the oth-er day and left her nine-ty plunks.

wound-ing of my heart, I'm just do-ing this to show the girls I ain't no eas-y mark.
