Vamp

It seems that I must al-ways sing a Dix-ie song,
A long the Swan-ee spreads the weep-ing wil-low tree,

Just a good old fashioned Southern song, Be-cause we all love a Swaying gent-ly in the Southern breeze, A-bove the birds sing their

Dix-ie mel-o-dy, When I was young, my mam-my al-ways sang to me, sweetest mel-o-dies, When I get back I'll get right down up-on my knees,

And way down in my heart, I've al-ways had a part of D, I, X, I, E.—
And then I'll say a pray'r, Be-cause I'll be right where I learned my A, B, C's.—

CHORUS

I've got the Swan-ee riv-er flowing thru my veins, That's why I p-f

love those good old fashioned Dix-ie strains, And ev-'ry twig and tree a-long it's shore,

Brings back to me once more, Songs that my mammy sang to me, oh mel-o - dy I can hear the banjos playing night and day, And each re-frain is in my brain to stay, Al-tho I left my heart with someone down in Dix - ie, I've got the Swanee riv-er flowing thru my veins I've got the veins.
