Save A Little Dram For Me

Moderato

Words and Music by
WILL E. SKIDMORE and MARSHALL WALKER

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second system. The lyrics are as follows:

In the mid - dle of his ser - mon, Par - son Johnson 'rose and When they passed that bone dry law I was the ver - y first to start - ed snif - fin' the air — A fa - mil - iar smell was tick - lin' up the Parsons nose it told him say it nev - er would stay — Neith - er did I think the law could regu - late our thirst that's why I "Gin" was 'round some - where — He closed his Bi - ble gent - ly in the mid - dle of the Psalm — And got none stored a - way — Now since Pro - bi - tion's got us drinks are few and far be - tween — Of start - ed fig - ur'n ment - ly where that smell was com - in' from — His eye scanned ev - ry pew — And then he all the stin - gy Brothers you're the worst I ev - er seen — I "in - sists" on my share — Dont say its

collo voce

did de clare — I "Nounce" this meet - in' thru — Un - til you "kick - in" with my share.
all run out — Or else you'll go to where — That bad place I been preach-in' 'bout.

CHORUS

Oh! Breth-er - en — if you wants more preach-in' Save a lit-tle dram for me (Glor-y Hal-li - lu - eh)

Drink - in' Gin ain't a - gainst my teach-in' Treat me with e - qual - i - ty —

Now I've Just

from that "Smell" it's plain to see Some - bod - y here is "Hold - in' - Out - On - Me" } shared your joy and shared your sin You bet your life I'se g'wine to share your Gin } So "slip" me mine one "shots" e - nough I'll show you how a preach-er "struts his stuff" }

Breth-er - en if you wants more preach-in' Save a lit-tle dram for me. — Oh! me. D.S.
