Who Tied The Can On The Old Dog's Tail?

By MIKE FITZPATRICK

Moderato

Vamp

The piano introduction consists of two systems. The first system is marked Moderato and features a melody in the right hand with eighth-note patterns and a bass line with chords and eighth notes. The second system is marked Vamp and features a more rhythmic, repetitive pattern in both hands, starting with a piano (p) dynamic.

I had a dog and his name was Tray The dog-gone dog he ran a-way
Old dog— Tray got an aw-ful kick And some-one hit him with a brick
That wasn't all when he reached the town. Most ev-'ry thing was up-side down

The first system shows the vocal melody in the right hand and piano accompaniment in the left hand. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, with the piano part featuring chords and a steady eighth-note bass line.

Ev-'ry-bo-dy lis-ten to my tale of woe This thing hap-pen'd not so
When he start-ed bol-ting for the old side door That old kit-tle kept a-
Sticks and stones were fly-ing all a-round the street All he need-ed was an

The third system shows the vocal melody in the right hand and piano accompaniment in the left hand. The fourth system continues the melody and accompaniment, with the piano part featuring chords and a steady eighth-note bass line.
