

TENN-EE-SS-EE

I'M COMING BACK TO TENNESSEE

BY
FRED H. WARREN

Billy Smythe Music Co.
LOUISVILLE, KY.

Double Double Double
T-E-N-N-E-SS-EE
(I'm Coming Back to Tennessee)

By FRED WARREN

Moderato

Till ready

I am feel-ing blue, Don't know what to do Lor-dy! How my heart just aches for some good corn-bread and buck-wheat cakes Miss my Lin-dy Lee, Jay-Bird in the tree, seems to whistle all day long come back my boy to me — The grandest sight I know is when the CHORUS
Dix-ie moons a - glow — Well I want to be, yes I want to be — In the moon-light land that's Ten-nes-see, Where the Jay-Bird sings in the old oak tree And the Bob-White calls you in the morn - ing, Where the skies are fair And the old bay mare why she won second prize at the

May be omitted in Folio only ad lib

county fair, Good - bye boys, I'm leav - ing for the state that's call - ing me Where the bees are bus - y buzz - ing in the clov - er bloss - om time And the hon - ey - suck - les blooming round the morning glory vine Weep no more my Lindy Lee I'm coming back to you I'm coming back to

"T" "E" double "N" "E" double "S" double "E" I'm coming back to Ten - nes - see - see -