WHERE THAT RAGTIME RIVER FLOWS

By J. R. SHANNON

Moderato

Composer of { "Back to Tennessee,"
"Waiman Rag," etc

The piano introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system is in 2/4 time, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a melody in the treble and a bass line in the bass. The second system continues the melody and bass line, with a key change to one flat (Bb) indicated by a key signature change.

The vamp section is marked with a 'Vamp' bracket and a 'p' (piano) dynamic. It consists of two systems of music. The first system is in 2/4 time, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The second system continues the vamp, with a key change to one sharp (F#) indicated by a key signature change.

The vocal melody and piano accompaniment are shown in two systems. The first system is in 2/4 time, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The second system continues the melody and bass line, with a key change to one flat (Bb) indicated by a key signature change.

In a big ca-fe down on Lis-ten while I tell you a-old Broadway, A wait-er by the name of Lee—bout that stream That flows right down the Dix-ie land;—

p

O - cean Rolls quite deep may be But a Rag-time river's good e - nough fo' me.
O - cean Lin - ers may be fine But a Rag-time riv - er boat will do fo' mine.

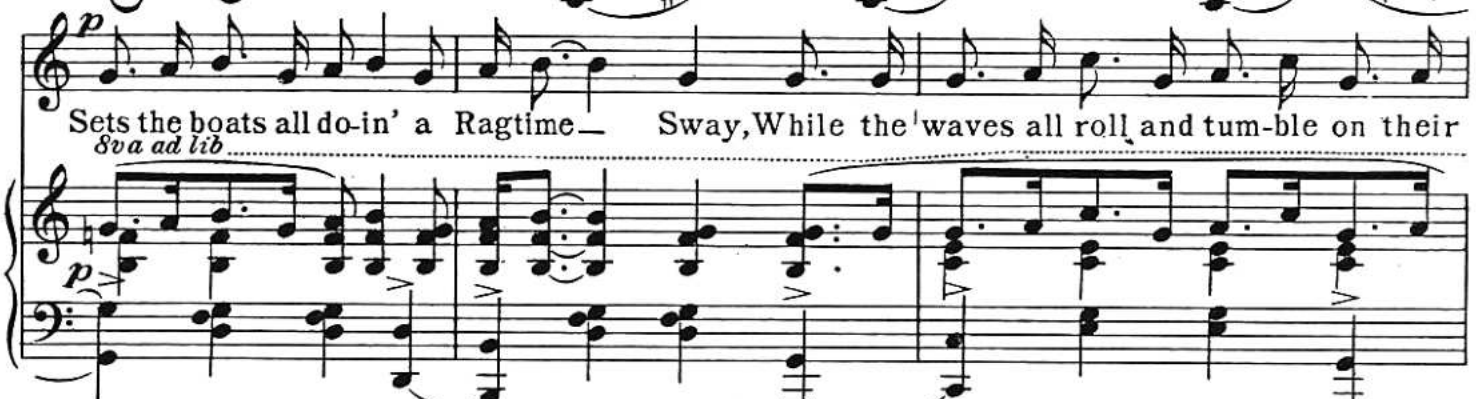

CHORUS
