

CHINESE MAIDEN

INSERIBED TO SAM S. SHUBERT GEN. MGR. CASINO THEATRE - HERALD SQ. THEATRE - PRINCESS THEATRE

2ND ACT OF "A CHINESE HONEYMOON" [300TH PERFORMANCE] AT THE CASINO THEATRE N.Y. CY.

SONG & CHORUS

BY HARRY L. STONE

ARRANGED BY E. C. DORSEY

INTRODUCED IN "A CHINESE HONEYMOON"
THE MOST BEAUTIFUL PRODUCTION OF THE AGE

PUBLISHED BY HARRY
NORTHPORT C

271-7

471839

A CHINESE MAIDEN.

3

by HARRY L. STONE.
arr. by E. C. DORSEY.

Moderato.

PIANO

f mf
poco-a-rit. an-do.

(till ready.)

1. Chi - na is my na-tive home,
2. Strange you look at me that way,

pp R.H. p

Far a-cross the sea,
Noth - ing have I done,

Came from there, here all a - Mat - ri - mo - ny to this

ff mf

lone,
day,

Noth - ing ev - er seems to both - er me;
Cu - pid seems to be my son;

rit.

Copyright 1903, by Harry L. Stone.

a tempo.

Going to have a Hon - ey - moon,
When my dream of life is o'er,

mf a tempo.

Found the one I love,
Then I'm going a - way,

ff

poco - - - a - - poco - rit.

Hap - pi - ly we'll live, When love to him I'll give, 'Tis Chi - nese Hon - ey - moon, Is com - ing to me, I'm strange I know but true.

wait - ing for that day.

CHORUS. (Slow.)

I'm a Chi - nese maid - en, Just as good as can be,

mf dolce espr.

I came here from Pek - in, Far a - cross the sea;

Soon I'm to be mar - ried, To the love I've car - ried;

Prayer and pas - sion wait - ing, For my wed - ding day.

rit. pp

A Chinese Maiden. - 3.