Happy-Go-Lucky Days

By Al. Wilson & Jas. A. Brennan

WRITERS OF ~"LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE" AND "DOWN BY THE OLD SWIMMING HOLE"

Featured by

The Duncan Sisters

Now Appearing in the Big Musical Comedy Success

"Topsy and Eva"

AL. WILSON
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
1595 BROADWAY N.Y.

MADE IN U.S.A.

Happy-Go-Lucky Days

With Piano Tune Ukulele

A D F♯ B

Put Uke Capo on 3rd Fret

By AL. WILSON and
JAMES A. BRENNAN
Writers of "Little Red School House" and
"Down By The Old Swimming Hole"

Ukulele arrangement by MAY SINGHI BREEN

Copyright MCMXXV by Al. Wilson Music Pub. Co. 1595 B'way, N.Y.C.
International Copyright Secured

Hap - py go luck - y days. — When we used to go to school, Re - mem - ber how you'd wave your hand, The teach - er'd say "stand" When she'd ask you to spell. C - A - T spells dog, you'd stand right up and yell Hey! Then you'd have read - ing, too,
You knew ev - 'ry word And a lot of oth - er words that teach - er nev - er heard; — Ev - 'ry quest - ion in school that teach - er asked, you al - ways knew, 'Cause the How they grabbed for the cake, no - bod - y wait - ed like they should, But the smart-est kid in school had the desk in front of you. I'd love to live al-ways, In those sev-en piec-es I got all tast-ed might-y good. I'd love to live al-ways, In those rit
𝄋

1 2 into Patter last time hap-py-go-luck-y days. Back in those days. At the days.

hap-py-go-luck-y days.

Patter

birth day part-ies, gee! the games were rough, We played "puss in the cor-ner," and

"blind-man's bluff." They hit me in the puss and I'm tell-ing you, That I laid in the cor-ner for an hour or two. "Chew-ing the string" was a game I would n't miss, Ev - 'ry boy and girl that played was sure to get a kiss, When it came my turn to play I did - n't get a thing, 'Cause I got ex - cit - ed and swal - lowed the string. Then they said that ev - 'ry kid in the place, Should see who could make the fun - ni - est face, They gave me the prize and I be - gan to bawl, Be - cause I had - n't been play - ing at all. How they D.S.