TILL READY

Now when you hear some har - mon - y _____ If it's a rag-time mel-o - I'll have to make a change I fear _____ I'll have to get a - way from dy _____ And if a rag-time sing-er singa you know the joy it al-ways brings But when you here _____ And if I had my heart's de - light _____ I'd be a - way down south to - night _____ I'd be a - hear it sung in ev-er-y ca - ba - ret then it takes the har-mon-y all - a - way What you want is way down south where ev-er-y day it seems good old rag-time mel-o-dy reigns supreme I'd be hap-py some - one to come and say, "take a trip down south" You'll nev-er know what rag-time is or If I could on - ly dream 'bout that south-ern land There ain't no use to have the blues but how it makes you feel 'Till you take a trip to New Or-leans and stop off at Mo - bile.

 that's just how I feel So I'll bless the day when I can pay my fare back to Mo - bile.

CHORUS

p-f

'Cause when I heard that Mobile boy sing the Memphis blues Then I went and bought a pair of rag-time shoes And I went and hired a big "jass" band the fin-est mus-ic in the land And I hurried round to spread the joy-ful news — to ev-ry-bod-y — That was-n't all — I hired a hall — to give a great big rag-time ball — And brought my Mo-bile boy there to a — muse — I nev-er had — such a time in my life I danc'd with ev- 'ry-bod-y but my wife — When I heard that Mobile boy sing the Memphis blues. — When I blues.
