

DIXIELAND IS HAPPYLAND

WORDS BY ALEX. SULLIVAN MUSIC BY LYNN COWAN

Shapiro
Bernstein
& Co.
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
Cor. 47th St. & Broadway
New York

THIS NUMBER ON ALL
PHONOGRAPH RECORDS
AND MUSIC ROLLS

Dixieland Is Happyland

Words by ALEX SULLIVAN

Music by LYNN COWAN

Moderato

VOICE

Vamp

f p

long, come a-long to Hap-py-land
long, come a-long to Hap-py-land

There's a Ju-bi-lee Meet old black Joe

Hear a song, hear a song, in We be-long, we belong, in Hap-py-land You'll be wel-come with me Hap-py-land When mag-no-li-as grow

There's no place just like it You'll en-joy the cook-ing

And the Just be-mo-ment that you strike it cause the cook's good look-ing,

You'll ad-mit it's a great big hit Par-a-dise is-n't half so nice

And you will a-gree
I want you to know

CHORUS

That Dix-ie-land is Hap-py-land all of the time Dix-ie-land is

p-f

mer-ry land no sweet-er clime, — Flow'rs and song ev'-ry where you go

Jaz-zy mu - sic on the old ban-jo, — Pret-ty girl-ies by the score, Each one sweet-er than the one be-fore When you hear those southern dark - - ies har-mon-ize — Shut your eyes ima-gine you're in Par - a - dise — If a man down there should wear a frown the sher-iff orders him right out of town, For Dix-ie-land is Hap-py, hap - py land. — land. —