

No. 372

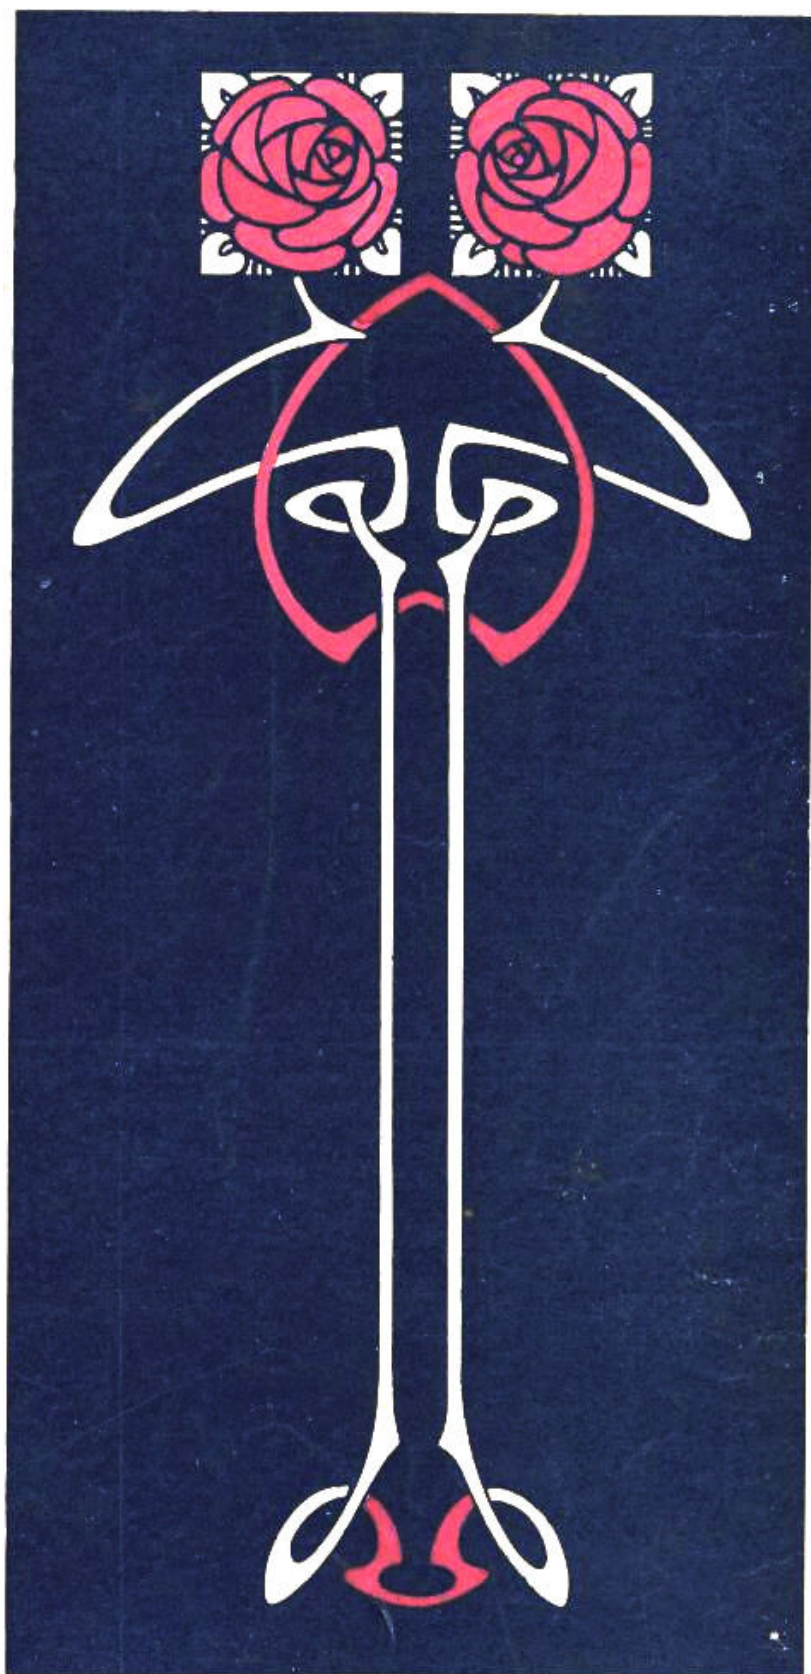

NOISY BOYS

Written and Composed by

Joe Gilbert

and

Bert Desmond

Sung by Joe Gilbert!

Copyright.
Allan & Co. PTY LTD
MELBOURNE, BENDIGO & GEELONG.

NOISY BOYS.

Written and Composed by JOE GILBERT & BERT DESMOND.

Arranged by J. P. KNOWLES.

ALLEGRO MODERATO

PIANO

VOICE

All the songs to - day are of the girls, the girlie girls. There's none about the boys, it is a Now if in - to a picture show, you should chance to go, There's al - ways "noi - sy boys" there you'll ad - shame. They sing of ru - by lips, and cur - ly curls, and teeth like pearls, ... There's mit. They're spooning and they're croon - ing while the lights are low. If lots of boys that's served out just the same..... lights went up, some girls would have a fit.....

Now I've got a song a-bout "noi-sy boys" and Now all of you dear lit-tle gir-lie girls with most of you here to-night,..... in fact all the cur-ly cur-ly girls will say that I am right your bits of frills and lace..... When you're out with your boys "the noisy boys" just keep them in their place.

rall.

CHORUS a tempo.

Noi - sy Boys! Noi - sy Boys! You're the Lad - les

1ST P 2ND ff

pride and joy, they can't do with-out you no matt - er how they try..... they think you're just as sweet as ap - ple pie. In the dark,..... In the park..... Boys and Girls are full of joy,..... the girls may kiss each oth - er and their fath - er or their mother, but they all want the Noi - sy Boys..... Noi - sy Boys.....

1ST TIME 2ND TIME

D.C.