I was so cute when I got a job in

I was young, — My name was on most ev - 'ry tongue a coal mine, — 'Cause work like that's right in my line

The gals 'round home would fight to see, — Which one would hold me
At meal time in my board - in' place, — Lan - la - dy asked "did yer on her knee — And if per-chance then I should weep.

wash yer face? — I thought that she was tryin' to kid.

They'd put me in their beds to sleep That was the way it I said "Mad-am, of course I did." I used to bathe most used to be — But not late - ly reg - 'lar - ly — But not late - ly

Refrain

Not late - ly no sir - ree; Not late - ly Not for Not late - ly no Mam - mee, Not late - ly Not for me. Things don't seem — to be com - in' my way, — Not me. Wat - er does — not a - gree with me now, — Not late - ly. The hug - gin' and kiss - in' they late - ly. 'Cause you know Pro - bi - tions a gave — me then, — They're giv - in' now to oth - er men — I new cause of crime, — When you could get a drink for a dime — Then thought my chance — would come a - gain — But not late - ly!

I'd use wat - er ev - 'ry time — But not late - ly!
