| 1. My bonnie lies out on the o - cean, While sad - ly I wait on the shore; | He |
| 2. He left me when ros - es were fad - ing, To bid me farewell, for a while; | My |
| 3. Then, darling one, can you for - sake me? My life is so wea - ry and lone! | Oh! | wander'd a-way o'er the bil - low, I'm longing to see him once more!..... He heart is so wea - ry and lone - ly, Be - rest of his beauti - ful smile..... I send me a word o'er the wa - ter, And say you are ev - er my own!..... In comes to my heart in bright vis - ions, His face like an angels I see!..... And, stray where the bil - lows are dash - ing, And wonder where now he can be;..... My sor - row and tears I'm re - pin - ing, And sad is my watch by the sea,..... My still do I sigh in my dream - ing:—Oh! bring back my bonnie to me!..... heart to the waves ev - er wish - pers: Oh! bring back my bon - nie - to me!..... } Chorus.

dar - ling, my dear one for ev - er! Oh! bring back my bonnie to me!.....

—Chorus.—
